

The traditional Christmas Pageant will be presented by the students this evening at the regular Hillside PTA meeting at 7:30 p.m.

treat under certain circumstances is O.K. But this type of cheaping-out is pretty chintzey.

Dear Ann: Our seven-year-old daughter is scared to death of dogs. When she was two, a large dog jumped on her and bit her arm. Since then she goes into hysterics whenever a dog comes near her.

If I'm walking with her and we see a dog she begs me to pick her up and carry her. Well, Ann, I can't carry a 7-year-old child around in my arms. And what about when she gets older? Can you help?

—C.P.
Dear C.P.: Start by getting her a tiny puppy. Let her hold him, pet him and feed him. Select a gentle breed and bring it home as a surprise.

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What to Expect from Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.) Copyright 1959, Field Enterprises, Inc.

Attends Game

Mrs. Plu Whyte joined a group of long time friends in San Francisco recently to attend the Stanford-California game. Mrs. Whyte was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Rexford Black in Palo Alto.

about the hall and the long white evening gowns of the officers helped make the occasion festive. Guests from several neighboring courts were present, Court Madonna of Lynwood, Joan of Arc, Inglewood: St. Michael, Westchester; St. Anne and Marian, both of Long Beach; St. Matthais, Huntington Park; and Our Lady of Victory, Redondo Beach. Distinguished guests included Mrs. Arthur Messerschmitt, past state regent, of Long Beach; Mrs. Herbert Pritchard, CDA Home vice president; Mrs. Wayne Morgan, archdiocesan chairman on confraternity; and the Rev. P. J. McGuinness, of Lynwood, former chaplain of the local court.

The Rev. Joseph K. McArdle, chaplain of Court St. Catherine, greeted the new members, and presented a spiritual message. Music for the ceremonies was furnished by Mrs. John V. Murray, who also accompanied Mrs. Lyle J. O'Hara when she sang "Ave Maria."

Highlighting the beautifully appointed tea table, covered with a net-over-satin cloth of wisteria, was a white madonna figurine against an arrangement of wheat, okra pods, and magnolia leaves, sprayed in gold, this the handiwork of Mrs. Benstead, one of the new members initiated that evening. Several past regents, Mesdames Laurence Derouin, Don Cowden and Francis A. Gately, and other officers took turns presiding at the silver service. A lighted madonna shrine was part of the stage decorations.

Mrs. Robert Klaesges who as the court's extension chairman arranged all the details of application for the new members, was also chairman of the hostess committee. Assisting her with the refreshments were Mmes. James Carlin, T. T. Babbitt, LeRoy Armstrong, James Fornelli, Eugene Erbeta Jr., Leonard Reid, Robert Lewellen Jr., and Miss Grace Young.

This same committee of hostesses served refreshments at the November business meeting, at which a donation to the Community Chest was voted.

Business and social meetings will be combined on Monday, Dec. 14, when Court St. Catherine's Christmas party will follow a brief business session.
